A method to relax body, speech and mind
Guided Meditation

H.H. Trijang Dorje Chang

From a pure Himalayan source, this nectar of relaxation gushes forth, sparkling with the clear forms of water crystal jewels. This ambrosia contains the pure energy of the five great elements, which can be used in the healing of body, speech and mind as well as to revitalize the life essence of nirvana. This secret teaching of chakra purification is passed down through a direct lineage, from Buddha Vajradhara to my root guru H.H. Trijang Dorje Chang. This ear-whispered lineage of Ganden Mahamudra, known as Ganden Kargyu Chagya Chenpo, is the essence of the ocean of all Buddha's tantric teachings. This precious knowledge can still be used today to heal and relax all beings from their physical and mental suffering on the gross, subtle and very subtle levels. I composed this practice with the permission and blessings of my gurus, yidams and dharma protectors. This secret relaxation method, which is a source of benefit and happiness, is called the 'Pure Crystal Form'. It has been created for the benefit of all sentient beings and the world, in the hope that it will enable people to develop and link with non-violent energies in order to develop inner peace which is the most solid foundation for world peace. May the merits created by the practice of Ngälso Tantric Self-Healing be dedicated to outer and inner world peace, now and forever.

NGALSO TANTRIC SELF-HEALING II

How to relax body, speech and mind

This Tantric Self-Healing exercise is a condensed form that gathers together different purification therapies of body, speech and mind, of the environment and of the five elements that compose the microcosm and macrocosm, it includes: breathing, gesture, sound, visualization, colour and symbol therapies.

Exhaling, we expel all our accumulated negativities and illnesses; inhaling we channel all the pure energies of the five elements and of the Five Dhyani Buddhas, the Supreme Healers.

This breathing exercise accompanies us as we perform the mudras, when we recite the mantras and during meditative concentration.

Purifying the Five Elements at My Five Chakras

As I recite the mantra, with my hands in the prayer mudra, I touch each of my chakras (in sequence 1 to 5). I then gather all the negativities and interferences relating to the five elements and expel them from my chakras.

At the age of twelve he received the “Kachen” degree, which is usually conferred after twenty years of study. Between the ages of thirteen and eighteen, he studied medicine, astrology, meditation and philosophy in two of the major monastic universities of Tibet: Sera and Tashi Lhumpo. He also studied Tantra and secret healing methods under the guidance of H.H. Trijang Dorje Chang and Venerable Zong Rinpoche.*

In 1963, he began his studies at the Varanasi Sanskrit University in Benares, India and in 1970 he received the Geshe Rigram degree (doctorate in philosophy) from the Sera Me Monastic University of South India.

After completing his formal studies Lama Gangchen dedicated his activities to sharing this precious knowledge with all those interested in inner development and healing.

In 1981, Lama Gangchen visited Europe for the first time and has since become a resident. He has developed many meditation practices that are particularly suitable for the busy western mind and lifestyle, such as Ngagso Tantric Self-Healing, a method that helps recognize our real inner qualities and balance body, speech and mind. He has diffused worldwide his unique teachings on inner peace education and environmental care, promoted cooperation between the East and West and encouraged the diffusion of Himalayan culture and traditional healing methods.
